Welcome to Slaley Show!

Welcome to the 164th Slaley show.

Another slaley show celebrating all things rural. Whether you have come from just down the road or from across the county you are all very welcome. Today is about celebrating the very best of our rural community-our incredible farmers, talented artisans, dedicated young farmers and the produce that makes this area so special.

It's a family friendly event with so much to entertain the young ones and plenty of rest and refreshment areas to keep us all going. A show like Slaley doesn't just happen overnight, it takes months of hard work and commitment. We would like to say a massive thank you to our committee, our dedicated volunteers and our stewards who all pull the show together. We also owe a debt of gratitude to our sponsors, advertisers and judges for their invaluable support.

We hope you enjoy your day, don't forget to watch the horses and the impressive live stock and take a look in the marquees at the produce, floral art, miss shaped veg and of course the ever-competitive homemade jams and baking classes.

This schedule lists every competitive section and classes with details of closing dates for entries and contact details for further information. What a perfect opportunity to showcase the skills of not only Slaley, Healey and Hexhamshire, but well beyond our parish boundaries and our beautiful NE region itself. We particularly thank those of you who put in entries to the sections without which we wouldn't have a Show.

Looking forward to seeing you all.

Slaley Show Committee

SPECIAL THANKS TO...

Keith Robson for the use of his field for the show, Clive Weatherley and Rebecca Wilson for the use of their fields parking, the Dart and Kellett families for the release of the fields from their farming activities at show time.

Slaley Show runs entirely on the voluntary efforts of the General Committee, dedicated members of the Slaley Show Society, previous 'time-served' committee members and those – too numerous to mention – whose help is invaluable in storage of equipment and preparation of the show, the show itself and the tidying up afterwards.

On a bright green farm at the start of the day,
There's lots to learn while we work and play.
The cows in fields move calm and slow,
Teaching us patience helps us grow.
The hens lay eggs in nests of hay,
Reminding us that effort leads the way.
Tiny seeds sleep deep in the ground,
Then sprout to life without a sound.
So farms can teach, both old and new,
That care and hard work help dreams come true.

Across green fields beneath the British sky,
Where rolling hills and stone walls wander by,
The farmer's work begins at break of day,
To keep our food and countryside in play.
From sheep on moors to crops in ordered rows,
A way of life that quietly still grows.

Through wind and rain, through challenge and through change,
 Their steady care keeps nature's balance strange.
 To back our farms is more than just a choice,
 It's giving rural lives a stronger voice.
 Supporting those who feed the land and towns,
 And wear their hard-earned labour like a crown.
 So stand with those who work the soil with pride,
 British farming stands at our side.

Group effort – all ages:

- 253. Scarecrow – any theme

Meet our new president

After 6 years of support and guidance from Robert Forster he has stepped down as show president, we would like to take this opportunity to say a massive thank you and we look forward to seeing you around the show field this year.

so we would like to introduce our new show president who is not a stranger to many as he was show commentator along side Robert for 8 years

So please welcome Denis Lumley!

Before Denis and his family moved up north in 1967 from Yorkshire, himself and older brother Ken were active members of the Hurworth pony club and they both were on the team that won the prince Philip cup for the mounted games that same year.

Denis being the keen horseman he was also competed four times in his teens, at the horse of the year show in the show jumping classes.

Denis also put his knowledge of entertainments to good use and was the director of Whitley Chapel young farmers entertainments to get them to national final's three times. From there he was snapped up by Northumberland young farmers with the title of organiser and president then from there became Northern area president. He has also been past chairman and president of the Bluefaced Leicester society. He is currently Durhams representative on the wool board, through all of that Denis has remained a successful farmer.

We welcome Denis as our new President of Slaley Show.
